ASSOCIATES IN WOMEN'S HEALTH OFFERING
FREE INFANT MORTALITY PREVENTION SEMINARS FOR THE PUBLIC

---

April 25, 2017 – Youngstown, OH – Rodney Hill, M.D., FACOG and Nurse Practitioner Cynthia Daniels, MSN, RN, NP-C of Associates in Women's Health of the Mahoning Valley, Inc. are holding a free seminar on the topic of decreasing the Infant Mortality Prevention in the African American community. The inaugural seminar will take place on Saturday April 29 from 1:00pm until 3:00pm at Price Memorial AME Zion Church, located at 920 Dryden Ave. in Youngstown, Ohio 44505.

Health professionals, public officials, church practitioners and the general public are encouraged to attend. Food and refreshments will be provided.

"These seminars focus on preventative care, such as eating healthy" states Ms. Daniels. "We want to spread the word about what young ladies can do to prevent this devastating condition from occurring."

Infant Mortality is defined as the death of a baby before his or her first birthday. The Infant Mortality Rate is more than twice as high for Non-Hispanic African Americans when compared to Non-Hispanic Caucasians.

Dr. Hill is a Board Certified Obstetrician/Gynecologist and the owner of Associates in Women's Health of the Mahoning Valley, Inc. Dr. Hill obtained his undergraduate degree from Virginia State University, his medical degree from Eastern Virginia Medical School and completed his OB/GYN residency at Howard University Hospital in Washington D.C.

With over 15 years of experience as an OB/GYN doctor, Dr. Hill provides services such as birth control management, comprehensive prenatal management, baby delivery and postnatal management. In addition, Dr. Hill treats polycystic ovarian syndrome, chronic pelvic pain, osteoporosis and menopause. For several years, Dr. Hill has specialized in promoting maternal health and reducing infant mortality, and in 2016, he was recognized by UnitedHealthcare® of Ohio with an award for his leadership and dedication to this important work.

Ms. Daniels holds a Diploma in Nursing from Sharon General Hospital School of Nursing, a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing from YSU, a Master of Science Degree with a Concentration in Chronic Illness from the Clinical Nurse Specialist Program at YSU and a Post Master of Science Certificate from the Family Nurse Practitioner Program at YSU.

Ms. Daniels' Nurse Practitioner responsibilities at Associates in Women's Health include providing prenatal care up to delivery, gynecological exams and postmenopausal care. She also performs in-office procedures such as transvaginal and abdominal ultrasounds.
