ASSOCIATES IN WOMEN'S HEALTH ANNOUNCE FOUR WINNERS FOR THE "SANTA'S WISH LIST" CONTEST!

January 15, 2018-Youngstown, OH- Rodney Hill, M.D., FACOG of Associates in Women's Health, had his 4th Annual Santa's Wish List contest in December of 2017. Families in need were able to enter wish lists, one for each of their children, for the chance to have them fulfilled in time for Christmas.

Dr. Hill has done this for four years, and he always chooses one family from all of the entries. This year, due to an overwhelming amount of families in need, Dr. Hill decided to be more charitable. He picked four families and fulfilled each Christmas wish list for them.

"I am always happy to help out those that are truly in need," said Dr. Hill. "During the holiday season, I want people to think about what they're grateful for, not what they don't have."

On December 23, 2017, Dr. Hill and Youngstown State University football player Devon McNutt delivered the gifts to the four winning families. The families Dr. Hill chose this year were the families of Milagrito Aponte, Angelica Howell, Joanna Bulton, and Shamikia Carr.

"Thank you so much! He loved everything. I am so grateful, and it was a pleasure to meet Dr. Hill," said one winner, Shamikia Carr.

Dr. Hill plans to continue the Santa's Wish List contest next year, and for years to come.
